Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 16 January 2007.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e); was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 16 January 2007 has been entered.

Response to Amendment

In response to the amendment filed 16 January 2007, the following is placed in effect.

The rejection of claims 1-24 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Kim (US 6,930,150), taken with Wang et al (US 5,852,124), is removed only in this Office Action, based upon applicants' amendments to the claims, i.e. the recitation of "non-ionic." Otherwise, the rejection will be re-instated upon amendment of the claims to their original form.

The amendment necessitated the following new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claims contain subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventors, at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The recitation of "non-ionic" in each of the claims has no antecedent bases in the Specification, as originally filed.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The recitation of "non-ionic rubber modified styrene maleic anhydride copolymer" is an oxymoron since the presence of the maleic anhydride group produces an ionic polymer. Note in Sugioka et al (US 6,348,540), newly cited, at column 5 (lines 15-34). The recitation is, thus, vague and confusing since it is counter to what is known in the art.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1711

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Sugioka et al (US 6,348,540).

The reference to Sugioka et al teaches the production of a styrenic resin composition that comprises a non-ionic rubber modified styrene maleic anhydride copolymer with a polybutene constituent. Note column 4 (lines 28-54) for the rubber constituent, including polybutadiene. Note column 4 (line 58) to column 6 (line 2) for the employment of a styrene maleic anhydride copolymer. The reference teaches the inclusion of polybutene as either component (F) of component (G) at column 6 (lines 23 et seq.). Thus, the combination of constituents is shown at column 9 (lines 47-65). The manipulation of the constituents for maximum benefits derived therefrom would be well within the purview of a skilled artisan. Nothing unexpected is shown on the record and the expectation of success to arrive at the instantly claimed invention would be very high.

Response to Arguments

Due to the new grounds of rejection, applicants' arguments are considered moot.
